120 km of pistes

In the heart of the Mercantour mountain range and on the border with Italy, the Isola 2000 ski area is a «snowy balcony looking out on the Mediterranean»: the only resort from which you can see the sea! In other words, you can enjoy some sunshine without missing out on snow, because its micro climate ensures enviable snowfall! In addition to the 120km of pistes which wind their way between the pine trees, you'll love Isola 2000's range of fun activities in the snow, the southern feel of the resort – which has remained relatively small - and, of course, one of the real joys of a skiing holiday: sitting out on the terrace!
