Between the mountains and the sea, near Saint Cyprien

Latour-Bas-Elne is a charming little town in Languedoc, looked over by its tower, which was built in the 5th century and which is steeped in history.

Its geographical location between the mountains, Spain and the sea makes it perfect for a getaway and for visiting Catalonia. Latour-Bas-Elne is located less than 5 km from St-Cyprien beach, the most famous of Languedoc's seaside resorts, well known for its marina. It is home to a rich natural environment, with no less than 6 km of fine sand beaches, green and wooded areas and plenty more. You will live vacation full of emotions in one of the most beautiful region in France.
