THE SKI RESORT AND THE SKI AREA

Large, varied and sunny: it's a ski area with something for everyone. It's also called «the island in the sun»! Perched up on a south-facing plateau and benefiting from a microclimate, L'Alpe d'Huez boasts 300 days of sunshine a year !

Its magnificent ski area, consisting of 4 resorts and 2 villages, comprises 250km of incredibly varied pistes: fancy trying out the Sarenne, the longest piste in the world - 16km of uninterrupted downhill skiing? How about trying the Tunnel piste, which crosses the mountain? Or even a freestyle adventure? In the resort, at an altitude of 1860m, you can forget your car and take the free shuttle buses, available day and night, to enjoy an enormous range of family activities or sports.

Resort activities

Fun winter sports: 21 hectare snowpark, one of the largest in the Alps. 3 freestyle areas with boardercross and ski cross courses, kids park and new slides. Experience another side to the mountain: ski joëring, floodlit tobogganing run, zip-lining, ice driving and steering school, snowmobiling and dog sledding. Leisure facilities in the resort: ice rink, swimming pool, cinema, library, laser game and even a museum for your ski-free days.

Resort events

Spotlight on sports and culture: December : the Andros Trophy / January : the Comedy Film Festival / March : the Cristaux de l'Oisans / April : the Comic Book Festival.
